CHILLICOTHE :

FROM THE PRESS OF N. WILLIS, PRINTER TO THE CONVENTION.

1802.

Journal of the Convention,

BEGUN and held at the town of Chillicothe, in the county of Ross and territory aforesaid, on the first Monday in November (being the first day thereof) in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and two, and of the independence of the United States of America, the twenty-seventh.

On which day, being the time and place appointed for the meeting of the convention, for the purpose of forming a constitution and state government, by the act of congress, entitled, "An act to enable the people of the eastern division of the territory Northwest of the river Ohio, to form a constitution and state government, and for the admission of such state into the Union on an equal footing with the original states, and for other purposes," the following members appeared, who produced certificates of their having been duly chosen to serve in the convention, and having severally taken the oath of fidelity to the United States, and also an oath faithfully to discharge the duties of their office, took their seats, to wit:

From the County of Adams,

Joseph Darlington, Thomas Kirker and Israel Donaldson.

From the County of Belmont,

James Caldwell.

From the County of Hamilton,

Francis Dunlavy John Paul, Jeremiah Morrow, John Wilson, Charles Willing Byrd, William Goforth, John Smith and John Reily.

From the County of Jefferson,

Rudolph Bair, John Milligan and George Humphrey.

From the County of Ross,

Edward Tiffin, Nathaniel Massie, Thomas Worthington, Michael Baldwin and James Grubb.

And

From the County of Trumbull,

Samuel Huntington.

On motion,

The convention proceeded to the choice of a President, pro tempore, when William Goforth, Esquire, was chosen and took the chair.

On motion,

The convention proceeded to the choice of a secretary, pro tempore, whereupon Mr. William M'Farland was chosen and proceeded to the duties of his office.

On motion,

Resolved, That a standing committee of privileges and elections, to consist of five members, be chosen by ballot, whose duty it shall be to examine and report upon the credentials of the members returned to serve in the convention, and to take into consideration all such matters as shall or may be referred to them, touching returns and elections, and to report their proceedings, with their opinion thereupon, to the convention.

And a committee was appointed of Mr. Worthington, Mr. Darlington, Mr. Smith, Mr. Milligan and Mr. Huntington.

On motion,

The convention proceeded, by ballot, to the choice of a door-keeper, to serve during the pleasure of the convention, and upon examining the ballots, a majority of the votes was found in favor of Adam Betz.

On motion,

Ordered, That a committee of three be appointed to prepare and report rules for the regulation and government of the convention, and that Mr. Reily, Mr. Milligan and Mr. Worthington, be the said committee,

And then the convention adjourned until to-morrow morning, ten o'clock.

—O—

TUESDAY, November the 2nd, 1802.

Several other members, to wit: from the county of Belmont, Elijah Woods; from the county of Fairfield, Emanuel Carpenter and Henry Abrams; from the county of Jefferson, Bazileel Wells and Nathan Updegraff; from the county of Hamilton, John W. Browne; and from the county of Washington, Rufus Putnam, Ephraim Cutler, John McIntire and Benjamin Ives Gilman, appeared, who severally produced certificates of their having been chosen as members to the convention, and having taken the oath of fidelity to the United States, and also an oath faithfully to discharge the duties of their office, took their seats.

Mr. Worthington, from the committee of privileges and elections, to whom was referred the several returns of election of members to serve in the convention, made a report, which he delivered in at the secretary's table, where the same was read in the words following, to wit:

The committee of privileges and elections, to whom was referred the certificates of the elections of the following members, viz. From the county of Adams, Joseph Darlington, Thomas Kirker and Israel Donalson, Esquires; from the county of Belmont, James Caldwell, Esquire; from the county of Clermont, Philip Gatch and James Sargent, Esquires; from the county of Hamilton, Francis Dunlavy, John Paul, Jeremiah Morrow, John Wilson, Charles Willing Byrd, William Goforth, John Smith and John Reily, Esquires; from the county of Jefferson, Rudolph Bair, John Milligan and George Humphrey, Esquires; from the county of Ross, Edward Tiffin, Nathaniel Massie, Thomas Worthington, Michael Baldwin and James Grubb, Esquires; and from the county of Trumbull, Samuel Huntington, Esquire.

Having carefully examined the same, find them regular and agreeably to a law of the territory, entitled, "An act to ascertain the number of free male inhabitants of the age of twenty-one, in the territory of the United States, North-west of the river Ohio; and to regulate the elections of representatives for the same." And that the members aforesaid from the certificates to us referred, appear duly elected.

The said report was again read, and on the question thereupon agreed to by the convention.

On motion,

Resolved, That the convention proceed, by ballot, to the choice of a president.

The convention accordingly proceeded to choose their president, and upon examining the ballots it was found that Edward Tiffin, Esquire, was duly chosen, who accordingly took his seat in the chair and delivered the following address.

Gentlemen,

I beg you to be assured, that I duly appreciate the honour you have conferred in selecting me to preside over your deliberations on this important occasion; the duties of the chair will, I presume, be pleasing and easy, for, from the known characters of the gentlemen who compose this convention, there can be no doubt but that the utmost propriety and decorum will be observed, without the aid of interference from the chair. Whatever rules you may adopt for the government of the convention, shall be strictly observed, and in every decision which may be required from the chair, the utmost impartiality shall be evinced.

On motion,

Resolved, That the convention proceed, by ballot, to the choice of a secretary, and that the person having a plurality of votes be elected.

The convention accordingly proceeded to choose their secretary, and upon examining the ballots, it was found that Thomas Scott, Esquire, was duly chosen, who thereupon took the oath of fidelity to the United States, and also an oath faithfully to discharge the duties of his office.

On motion,

Resolved, That the convention proceed, by ballot, to the choice of an assistant secretary.

The convention accordingly proceeded to the choice of an assistant secretary, and upon examining the ballots, a majority of the votes of the whole number was found in favor of Mr. William M'Farland, who thereupon took the oath of fidelity to the United States, and also an oath faithfully to discharge the duties of his office.

And then the convention adjourned until to-morrow morning, ten o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, November the 3d, 1802.

Another member, to wit ; from the county of Hamilton, John Kitchel, who appeared, produced a certificate of his having been duly chosen as a member in the convention, and having taken the oath of fidelity to the United States, and also an oath faithfully to discharge the duties of his office, took his seat.

Mr. Reily, from the committee appointed to prepare and report rules for the regulation and government of the convention, made a report, which was received and read : Whereupon,

Resolved, That the same be established as the standing rules and orders of the convention.

STANDING RULES AND ORDERS OF THE CONVENTION.

1. The President shall take the chair every day at the hour to which the convention shall have adjourned on the preceding day ; shall immediately call the members to order, and on the appearance of a quorum, shall cause the journal of the preceding day to be read.

2. The President shall preserve decorum and order ; may speak to points of order in preference to other members, rising from the chair for that purpose, and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the convention by any one member.

3. The President, rising from his seat, shall distinctly put the question in this form, viz " You who are of opinion that (as the case may be) say ay ; contrary opinion say no."

4. If the President doubts, or a division be called for, the members shall divide, those in the affirmative first rising from their seats, and afterwards those in the negative. If a count be required by any member, the President shall name two members, one from each side to tell the numbers, beginning with the affirmative, report of the same being made to the President, he rising from his seat, shall state the decision.

5. Any member may call for a statement of the question, which the President may give sitting.

6. The President with five members, shall be a sufficient number to adjourn; seven to call a house and send for absent members and make an order for their censure or discharge, and a majority of the whole number, consisting of two thirds of the whole number elected, be a quorum to proceed to business.

7. When a member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the convention, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to Mr. President.

8. If any member in speaking or otherwise, transgress the rules, the President shall, or any member may call to order, in which case the member so called to order, shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain, and the convention shall, if appealed to, decide on the case, but without debate. If the decision be in favour of the member called to order, he shall be at liberty to proceed, if otherwise and the case require it, he shall be liable to the censure of the convention.

9. When two or more happen to rise at the same time, the President shall name the person who is first to speak.

10. No member shall speak more than twice to the same question, without leave of the convention.

11. Whilst the President is putting a question or addressing the convention, none shall walk out of or across the room, nor when a member is speaking entertain private discourse or pass between him and the chair.

12. No member shall vote on any question, or in any case where he was not present when the question was put.

13. Upon calls of the convention for taking the yeas and nays on any question, the names of the members shall be called alphabetically, and each member shall answer from his seat.

14. Any member shall have a right to call for the yeas and nays, provided he shall request it before the question be put.

15. When a motion is made and seconded, it shall be stated by the President, or being in writing shall be read aloud by the secretary, and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the President or any member require it.

16. Any member may call for a division of the question, where the sense will admit of it.

17. Each member shall particularly forbear personal reflection, nor shall any member name another in argument or debate.

18. After a motion is stated by the President or read by the secretary, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the convention, but may be withdrawn at any time before a decision or amendment.

19. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received unless it be the previous question, or for amending or committing the original motion or subject in debate.

20. The previous question shall be in this form, "Shall the main question be now put;" it shall only be admitted when demanded by three members, and until it is decided shall preclude all amendment and further debate on the original motion.

21. In taking the sense of the convention, a majority of the votes of the members present shall govern.

22. If any member fails in attending to his duty, such officer as may be appointed for that purpose, by order of the convention, shall take him into custody, for which the officer shall receive one dollar per day for the time he is travelling to and from the place of residence of the member, and until he is admitted to his seat, to be paid by the delinquent.

23. No resolution, section or article in the constitution, shall be finally concluded and agreed upon, until the same shall have received three several readings.

24. The convention shall resolve itself into a committee of the whole, when deemed necessary, and when in committee of the whole shall be governed by the foregoing rules, except that in committee of the whole, any member shall speak as often as he may think proper.

25. The president shall appoint committees, liable to addition or amendment, on the motion of any member, unless otherwise directed by the convention.

26. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order and be decided without debate.

A motion was made and seconded, that Arthur St. Clair, sen. Esq. be permitted to address the convention on those points which he deems of importance.
